Sentence: The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; ask therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.

Prayer of the Day: All-powerful God, in Jesus Christ you turned death into life, and defeat into victory: increase our faith and trust in him, that we may triumph over evil, in the strength of the same Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

From Pauline's Sermon

Maybe the blessing that Abraham and Sarah receive isn't in Isaac being given to them; it is in God walking with them through years of longing. We are blessed by that same presence, a gift we received before we even knew how to ask for it. God is with us when we struggle and when we succeed. God is with us as we pray in frustration and as we lift our voices in praise. God's very presence with us offers us a blessing—not by changing our circumstances, but by accompanying us in them. We are not alone, no matter what lies ahead of us. So, this morning, no matter where you are, may you be blessed. May you come into the understanding that God is here with you, right now, no matter what. May you receive the gift of God's immense grace and unchanging love. May the eyes of your heart be opened to see that God is blessing, and blessing, and blessing us. Amen.

From New Life Narrabri

Jesus sent out His closest disciples with a fairly broad commission to continue His work by healing people and preaching His message of the Kingdom. They did this successfully even before Jesus had died and risen, and before they had received the Holy Spirit. We who have the Holy Spirit fail to do these things because we do not trust in the authority that is ours in Christ. Everything in God's kingdom is about authority not about power. God has all the power to do as He pleases, but He has chosen to delegate all that to His disciples- that is to you and me. We have the power to heal the sick and raise the dead- that is the Holy Spirit. We also have authority from Christ to heal the sick, preach the gospel and raise the dead. I think that the problem is simply we lack faith. Not lack of faith in God but lack of faith in God's ability and willingness to use me. We have the Holy Spirit with us always. We have the authority of Christ to proclaim His reign. Let's be obedient and trusting to His command.
